Residential Suspect Vehicle

November 30th – Surveillance video captured this residential burglary suspect vehicle near 3000 West 68th Place. There were two suspects, a white male and another subject, unknown description.

The vehicle appears to be a newer white SUV, possibly Chevrolet or GMC.

Crime Tip

When selling items online, through Craigslist or similar sites, beware of someone wanting to pay by money order or cashier's check. These checks are often counterfeit. You will be the loser if the check does not clear. Make sure you have your money before parting with the item for sale.

From the Major's Desk...

Response to our Toy Drive has been overwhelming. I want to give a special shout out to Sunny Leigh from KVOO for kicking off the drive with a live remote on Dec. 9.

Zack Stoycoff with the Tulsa World ran a story on Monday that boosted toy donations the last few days.

Catch of the Day...

December 11th – A cab driver reported that pictured subject Tyler McCosar robbed him by force. The victim said he pulled over at 3100 East 61st Street and insisted that McCosar pay his cab fare. He said McCosar responded by punching him and demanding money from him. McCosar and another passenger left on foot.

Officers located McCosar nearby and arrested him for Attempted Robbery by Force or Fear and Obstructing Officers.

The Traffic Signal

Information from the Riverside Traffic Unit

'Tis the Season... Holiday traffic makes locating a parking space difficult at best. Be mindful of both the disabled and fire zones.

Parking in a space designated for Handicapped Parking (with no valid Disabled Parking Insignia displayed) - $150 fine.

Parking in a Fire/Safety Zone - $60 fine.
